The Nobel Prize Committee

Dear Sir,

As Chairman of the Nobel Prize Committee that has been formed in England to forward the names of representatives for the Nobel Prizes I have much pleasure in forwarding you herewith the Voting Papers which have been obtained in England for this purpose.

You will note that the large majority -- 48 in all -- have voted for Mr Herbert Spencer whose works must be known to yourself and the other members of your honourable body.

I have much pleasure in forwarding you a list of some of the most important of them over the page.

Trusting that you will acknowledge the receipt of these papers,

I beg to remain, dear Sir,

Yours very truly, Avebury
